FROM THE HEART OF ATLANTIC COUNTY MAGAZINE

In November, The Lynn Kramer Village by the Shore at Jewish Family Service (JFS) will offer many interactive, entertaining and unique programs. Plan to participate with friends, family and neighbors and enjoy these virtual and in-person programs.

Lunch Around Town - Mon, Nov 4 from 12-1:30pm

Enjoy a leisurely lunch with friends while supporting a local restaurant. This month, we'll dine at Fitzpatrick's Deli & Steakhouse, 650 New Rd, Somers Point. Come prepared for good food and conversation. Order off the menu and pay individually (cash only). RSVP by Nov 1.

Thoughts from the Bookshelf - Tues, Nov 5 from 3-4pm

Join Thoughts from the Bookshelf Facilitator Pat Goldstein and Village Community Specialist Tina Serota for a book club gathering. This month, the group will discuss the novel, Such Kindness, by Andre Dubus III. The book focuses on Tom Lowe, whose working class identity and pride are invested in the job he performs until a terrible fall alters his life forever. The story takes readers on his journey from bitter helplessness to finding knowledge in his self-worth. Attend in-person at the Margate Library Meeting Room, 8100 Atlantic Ave, Margate. RSVP by Nov 1.

Holiday Scams: The Unwanted Gift of Seasonal Swindles - Wed, Nov 6 from 10:30-11:30am

With the holidays around the corner, many people will increase their shopping, travel, and celebrations with family, friends and colleagues. Each year, the FBI Internet Crime Complaint Center receives an ever-growing record number of scam schemes that target consumers during the holiday season. Join Village Community Specialist Tina Serota and JCC's Bridget Giblin as they welcome Justin Chubb from the Jersey Shore Federal Credit Union who will educate us about the latest in holiday fraud and how to avoid it. An interactive discussion and refreshments follow the presentation. Attend in-person at the Katz JCC Boardroom, 501 North Jerome Ave, Margate. RSVP by Nov 4.

The Lynn Kramer Village by the Shore at JFS... There's Something for Everyone to Enjoy

Village Film Society - Tues, Nov 12 from 10:30-11:30am

Join Village Film Enthusiast & Historic Cinematic Buff Tom Celandine and Village Community Specialist Tina Serota for a discussion about the Academy and Golden Globe Awards nominated film, Inherit the Wind, starring Spencer Tracy, Gene Kelly, Fredric March, and Dick York. The movie focuses on the 1920s trial of a Tennessee teacher who violated the Butler Act, a law that prohibits public schools from teaching evolution instead of creationism. The movie can be viewed for free on Tubi and Pluto TV or for a fee on Amazon Prime, Google Play Movies, Apple TV, YouTube and Fandango at Home. This program is via Zoom and a link will be emailed prior to the program. RSVP by Nov 7.

Researching Your Jewish Roots with JewishGen - Wed, Nov 13 from 10:30-11:30am

Join Avraham Groll, Vice President of JewishGen for the Museum of Jewish Heritage - A Living Memorial to the Holocaust, as he offers archival, historical, contextual and networking components people rely on when exploring their family roots. He will discuss common challenges people encounter researching family history, and how JewishGen can help with an overview of how to navigate key resources and features on the site. This program is presented by JFS' Village by the Shore, Sara and Sam Schoffer Holocaust Resource Center at Stockton University, and the Katz JCC. Attend in-person at the Katz JCC Boardroom, 501 North Jerome Ave, Margate. RSVP by Nov 6.

Freedom Song: One Family's Struggle with Addiction. One Nation's Path to Recovery. - Thurs, Nov 14 at 6:30pm

This performance is an original musical production about addiction and recovery in the Jewish community. Freedom Song shatters the myth of Jews being immune to addiction by interweaving the story of Passover and personal stories of addiction. The cast is comprised of addicts in recovery from drugs, alcohol, gambling, and other destructive behaviors. Through song, dance, tears, laughter and a post-show discussion with the cast, Freedom Song, opens an honest conversation on the often stigmatized topic of addiction. Attend in-person at the Katz JCC, 501 N. Jerome Ave, Margate. Free. RSVP required at: bit.ly/4h7ffTo.

THE 26TH ANNUAL MIDDLE TOWNSHIP OLDE TYME HARVEST FESTIVAL RETURNED TO DOWNTOWN CAPE MAY COURT HOUSE ON SATURDAY, OCT. 26.

DAY OF THE DEAD NOVEMBER 2, 2024

Day of the Dead, or Día de los Muertos, is a traditional Mexican holiday celebrated November 2. On this day, it is believed that the souls of the dead return to visit their living family members. Many people celebrate this day by visiting the graves of deceased loved ones and setting up altars with their favorite foods, drink, and photos.

History of Day of the Dead

The ancient indigenous people of Mexico have practiced rituals celebrating the lives of past ancestors for around 3,000 years. The celebration that is now known as Day of the Dead originally landed on the ninth month of the Aztec calendar and was observed for the entire month. In the 20th century, the month long festivities were condensed to three days called The Days of the Dead: Halloween on October 31, Day of the Innocents on November 1, and Day of the Dead on November 2.

La Catrina is one of the most recognizable figures of Day of the Dead, a towering female skeleton with vibrant make up and a flamboyant feathery hat. The Lady of Death worshipped by the Aztecs protected their departed loved ones, guiding them through their final stages of the life and death cycles. La Catrina that we know today came to be in the early 1900s by controversial and political cartoonist José Guadalupe Posada. Artist and husband of Frida Kahlo, Diego Rivera, included José's La Catrina in one of his murals which depicted 400 years of Mexican history. His mural, "Dreams of a Sunday Afternoon in Alameda Park", includes himself and a young child holding hands with La Catrina, who is dressed in sophisticated garb and a fancy feathered hat.

Plans for Day of the Dead are made throughout the year. Toys are offered to dead children and bottles of alcohol or jars of alote get offered to dead adults. Most families decorate their loved ones' graves with ofrendas, which often includes marigolds. It's said that these specific flowers attract the souls of the dead to the offerings, and the bright petals and strong scent guides the souls from the cemetery to their family's home.

Since the 1960s, when the Mexican government declared it a public holiday based on educational policy initiatives, Dia de Muertos has been observed throughout Mexico. The tradition was added to the United Nations Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Organization's Representative List of Humanity's Intangible Cultural Heritage in 2008.

Day of the Dead Around the World

China - Ghost Festival - This traditional Buddhist and Taoist festival is part of Ghost Month, during which ghosts and spirits, including those of deceased relatives, come out of the lower realm. It is held on the 15th day of the 7th month of the Lunar calendar, which is normally at some point during August.

Cambodia - Pchum Ben (Ancestors Day) - A religious occasion when the gates of hell are said to open up and the souls walk among the living. People dress in all white and make food offerings. It is held on the 15th day of the tenth month in the Khmer calendar, which usually falls in September.

North and South Korea - Chuseok - Chuseok is a harvest festival and comparisons are often drawn to Thanksgiving. It's tradition for Koreans to visit the graves of their ancestors to pay their respects. Meaning "Autumn Eve" the holiday is celebrated for three days straight, normally in either September or October.

Nepal - Gaijatra - Known as the "festival of the cows" Gaijarta is a celebration of death. It's purpose is to help people accept death as a reality and to help ease the passing of those who have died. Each year cows, or children dressed as cows, walk in a procession throughout towns. The first day of the dark four night is held according to the lunar Nepa. This is usually in August or September.

How to Observe Day of the Dead

- Learn about Mexican culture - This holiday is a good opportunity to explore the rich culture of the Mexican people. Learn more about their customs and explore some of their most popular festivals and holidays.
- Visit a community cemetery - Many cemeteries are filled with festive sounds, smells, and imagery. Even if you don't have an altar, stop by a local community event to experience the sights and sounds that fill this day.
- Host a Day of the Dead event at your home - This day is meant to be celebrated with family and friends. Make a large dinner and ask people to bring a photo of a loved one that has passed away, and place all photos on a table. During dinner, go around the table and have everyone say one fun memory about their loved one. The key is to keep it fun, positive, and festive.

Why Day of the Dead is Important

- You get to remember your loved ones - While death can be a mournful experience, the Day of the Dead allows us to remember the happy memories we have of our loved ones.
- Altars show respect for the dead - Altars may come in different shapes and sizes, but they all serve the same purpose, to show respect and honor a late loved one. This day provides you a time to go through old photographs, letters, toys, and other items that may hold sentimental value.
- It brings people together - Believers across the country observe the holiday. People who share similar beliefs and practices unite to mark the holiday.

Why Donate Blood?

You don't need a special reason to give blood. You just need your own reason.

- Some of us give blood because we were asked by a friend.
- Some know that a family member or friend might need blood some day.
- Some believe it is the right thing to do.

Whatever your reason, the need is constant and your contribution is important for a healthy and reliable blood supply. And you'll feel good knowing you've helped change a life. To learn more, visit www.redcross.org

The need is constant. The gratification is instant. Give blood.

helping people transition from rehab to a sober living home

We are a volunteer-ran 501c3 non-profit organization. Donations are tax deductible, and greatly appreciated, not matter how big or small.

Outgoing Chief of External Affairs at the CFBNJ to begin November 1

Morristown, N.J. – Karen E. Leies, the Chief of External Affairs at the Community FoodBank of New Jersey (CFBNJ), has been named the President & CEO of The Seeing Eye, the world's oldest guide dog school.

"Karen stood out from a field of impressive candidates," said Cynthia Bryant, Esq., The Seeing Eye's Chair of the Board. "Her professional experience, her volunteerism, and her deep appreciation of the love between humans and dogs is the foundation of everything we do at The Seeing Eye."

Leies brings more than 25 years of experience with non-profit organizations. At CFBNJ, the state's largest anti-hunger organization, she oversaw Board relations, revenue, marketing, communications, and volunteer functions as Chief of External Affairs. Prior to that, she was the Senior Director of Development at the New York City Ballet. She also held executive positions at the Michael J. Fox Foundation for Parkinson's Research and Jazz at Lincoln Center.

"The Seeing Eye has set the gold standard in breeding and training guide dogs and established its undeniable reputation of excellence," Leies said. "I am honored to join a dedicated community of graduates, staff, volunteers, and donors who are all committed to building on this rich history in the years ahead."

Leies, a graduate of Ithaca College and a 2018 LEAD-NJ Fellow, also volunteers with Women Fighting Hunger and the New Jersey Ballet. She lives in South Orange with her family, including two golden retrievers, Lexi and Finnegan.

She will begin as President & CEO of The Seeing Eye on November 1, replacing Margaret E.L. "Peggi" Howard, D.Litt., who announced her upcoming retirement earlier this year. Howard, a member of the Board of Trustees since 2009, has served as President & CEO since December 2021. She will remain with the organization as an adviser until the end of the year.

Howard had previously served as Vice President of Administration and University Relations at Drew University until her retirement in 2014, and before that, as New Jersey Gov. Thomas H. Kean's Deputy Chief of Staff and Cabinet Secretary from 1984 to 1990.

"It's time to return to retirement and to being a full-time grandma... and a part-time volunteer at The Seeing Eye," said Howard, a resident of Whitehouse Station.

Established in 1929, The Seeing Eye provides specially bred and trained dogs to guide people who are blind. Seeing Eye dog handlers experience greatly enhanced mobility and independence, allowing them to retain their active lifestyles. The Seeing Eye is a 501(c)3 non-profit supported by contributions from individuals, corporations and foundations, bequests, and other planned gifts.

The Seeing Eye is a trademarked name and can only be used to describe the dogs bred and trained at the school's facilities in Morristown, N.J. ## PPAWS - People & Puppies at Work for Sight "MEET THE PACK!"

The Holiday Cards Are Here!

This year we are once again offering holiday cards and the 2025 Seeing Eye Puppy Calendar!

This year's cards feature a black Labrador retriever puppy wearing a large red bow, a collage of four puppies frolicking in the snow, and, from The Seeing Eye Archives, a historic black and white photo of Morris Frank carrying gifts into a home, guided by Buddy. The Christmas wreath on the front door has been colorized.

The 2025 Puppy Calendar features beautiful pictures of our Seeing Eye puppies, taken by our volunteer puppy raisers!

For more information, go to www.SeeingEye.org/card.

And to go with that card, how about the perfect gift for that special someone... or dog... in your life!

We have a wonderful selection of Seeing Eye clothing, caps, backpacks, mugs, insulated water bottles, dog bowls, blankets, and of course, plush puppies. To see what's available, go to www.SeeingEye.org/store.

Happy shopping!

PPAWS (People & Puppies at Work for Sight) is a dedicated group of local families from Atlantic and Cape May Counties, which raise these amazing puppies for The Seeing Eye. Until a Seeing Eye dog is ready for training, he or she lives with a puppy raising or foster family that gives the dog love, gentle guidance, and consistent care. These volunteers nurture their puppy to accomplish its special destiny. If you are interested in raising a puppy for The Seeing Eye, call Peter at (609)804-8774 or visit seeingeye.org/raise for info.
