In the rush of our daily lives, it's easy to take the simple blessings for granted — our health, the warmth of family and friends, and the cherished things that bring us comfort. We simply forget to pause and truly appreciate them.

Perhaps now is a good time to take a moment to reflect, savor the small but significant things that make life meaningful. It may take time to break free from old patterns, but with the guidance of these inspiring books, you'll find yourself embracing gratitude and discovering the power of living in the present. Whether you're seeking daily practices, uplifting stories, or transformative wisdom, this collection offers a path to deep reflection and joy. Let gratitude become a life-changing habit that leaves you forever transformed.

The Gratitude Diaries: How a Year Looking on the Bright Side Can Transform Your Life by Janice Kaplan

In this New York Times bestseller, Janice Kaplan spends a year embracing gratitude, transforming her marriage, family, work, and health. Through personal stories and expert advice, she reveals how gratitude can improve relationships, career success, and well-being. Featuring insights from psychologists, doctors, and celebrities like Matt Damon and Jerry Seinfeld, Kaplan shows how adopting a positive outlook can lead to a more fulfilling life.

The Book of Joy: Lasting Happiness in a Changing World by Dalai Lama, Desmond Tutu, and Douglas Carlton Abrams

An instant New York Times bestseller with over 1 million copies sold, this book captures a rare and intimate week between Nobel Peace Prize Laureates the Dalai Lama and Archbishop Desmond Tutu. Despite decades of hardship, they have remained two of the most joyful people on earth. In April 2015, they met in India to explore how to find joy amid life's suffering. Through personal stories, laughter, and deep reflections, they share their wisdom on overcoming obstacles like fear, anger, and grief, and offer the Eight Pillars of Joy — practical practices for lasting happiness. This powerful collaboration offers a window into their remarkable journey of peace, courage, and joy.

Soulful Serenades for Calm and Clarity by Hopelyn Grace

Life can be overwhelming, and it's easy to lose sight of what truly matters. Soulful Serenades for Calm and Clarity offers a quiet space to pause, reflect, and reconnect with inner peace. Each page is filled with gentle wisdom and inspiration, guiding readers toward clarity and calm. From embracing gratitude to cultivating self-love, this book encourages slowing down and finding meaning in the simple moments. Whether seeking comfort or a break from the chaos, Soulful Serenades for Calm and Clarity provides the serenity needed to restore balance. Take a deep breath, settle into the stillness, and let the journey toward inner peace unfold.

Gratitude by Oliver Sacks

A touching reflection on life and death, Oliver Sacks' final essays offer a deeply personal exploration of mortality, gratitude, and the human experience. In these heart-rending yet uplifting pieces, Sacks reflects on his own journey, embracing his uniqueness and the privilege of living. Known for his empathy and dedication to understanding humanity in all its forms, Sacks' writing captures the profound beauty of existence, inspiring readers to cherish life in its many variations. As Atul Gawande writes, Sacks was drawn to the most vulnerable, offering insights into life beyond machines and algorithms.

365 Thank You: The Year a Simple Act of Daily Gratitude Changed My Life by John Krallik

At age 53, John Krallik's life was at a low point — his relationships, work, and health were all in decline. But on New Year's Day, a simple idea struck him: his life could improve if he embraced gratitude. Inspired by a heartfelt thank-you note, he set out to write 365 thank-you notes over the course of the year. As he expressed appreciation for kindnesses big and small, his life began to transform. 365 Thank You's is a powerful memoir, showing how a simple act of gratitude can change everything and inspire a better life.

HOROSCOPE

FEBRUARY 27 - MARCH 5, 2025

ARIES (Mar. 21- April 20)

If you're feeling a creative block, it might be because your foundations need some reworking. Check in and ask if your current routines are giving you freedom or suffocating your creative flow. We all need structure, but if things aren't clicking anymore, a shift is in order. It doesn't need to be a struggle, treat it like an experiment.

TAURUS (Apr. 21- May 21)

The universe is inviting you to step outside your usual spaces today. You might find yourself spontaneously invited to events or places that spark fresh ideas and inspiration. Trust your instincts, don't overthink it. Your primal wisdom is your greatest tool, so let it guide you.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)

You might feel a flood of thoughts rushing in today, pushing you to act impulsively. Your mind is buzzing, but before jumping into anything, it's a great time to revisit tasks you've set aside. Break them down into small, actionable steps, and take the first move. It doesn't have to be a monumental leap, just a tiny shift could build momentum and get you back on track.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

Time to break free from your cozy shell, even if you've crafted the perfect hideaway. Your energy is ready to be spread far and wide, so lean into the impulse to explore. Experiment before committing to any new plans.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)

You might feel the itch to break free from old rules and traditions at work today. Now's not the time to burn bridges, but don't be afraid to speak up if something's holding you back. Do it with style and integrity, there's power in making your voice heard, but make sure you're clear on the risks. Don't let anyone push you into a corner.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)

It's easy to coast through life without questioning your beliefs. But today, the stars ask you to take a closer look at how your values impact the doors you walk through. Whether it's your work philosophy or spiritual outlook, take time to reflect on how your beliefs shape your choices. A quick review now could shift your entire path. Give yourself the space.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)

If anger or frustration has been bubbling beneath the surface, use it as fuel for creativity. Emotional mastery is your secret weapon today, turn uncomfortable feelings into productive energy. Find a creative outlet, whether it's writing, painting, or even just journaling. Let your emotions flow through you and channel them into something meaningful.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)

Healthy relationships thrive on a balance of closeness and freedom. Pay attention to what you need and communicate it clearly today. This is an ideal time to refine your boundaries within relationships so that you can maintain your individuality.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

If your fitness routine has been lacking, expect a surge of energy that'll push you back into action. You might feel unstoppable, but take it slow, ease back into your workouts and listen to your body. You could also find yourself faced with last-minute opportunities or deadlines, where you'll have to make a snap decision.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22- Jan. 20)

Make today about pleasure, joy, and honoring your body. Don't overextend yourself for work, leave room for the sensual experiences that keep you grounded. Your body holds timeless wisdom, so take the time to connect with it. Silence the mental chatter, and give yourself space to feel it.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 -Feb. 19)

Today, the usual cool, logical you might be thrown for a loop. That's exactly what you need, get out of your head and into your heart. You may feel inspired to work on a passion project that's been sitting on the backburner.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

Your voice is powerful, and today is the day to let it be heard. Don't hold back out of fear or uncertainty. Your words have the potential to shift perspectives. When you speak from the heart, you'll attract your tribe.

HEALTHFUL LIVING

A Weekly Guide to Health Awareness

YOGA POSE OF THE WEEK - Downward Facing Dog Split

The introduction of appropriate balancing postures helps build core strength. In the Down Dog Split yoga pose, it's not about how high you can lift your leg. Instead, focus on rooting into the hands and keeping your weight distributed evenly in both hands.

THREE-LEGGED DOG

TIP

Keep your hips squared with the floor, while reaching the opposite heel toward the ground.

VITAMIN HIGHLIGHT - Iron

When your levels are low, your body doesn't make enough healthy red blood cells. And without them, you can't get oxygen to your tissues. Women who are pregnant or have heavy menstrual cycles are most likely to have anemia, the medical name for when you don't have enough iron in your blood.

Keep up your levels with beans and lentils, liver, oysters, and spinach. Many breakfast cereals have a day's worth added. Even dark chocolate with at least 45% cacao has some!

Help save lives. Give blood.

Why Donate Blood?

You don't need a special reason to give blood. You just need your own reason.

- Some of us give blood because we were asked by a friend.
- Some know that a family member or friend might need blood some day.
- Some believe it is the right thing to do.

Whatever your reason, the need is constant and your contribution is important for a healthy and reliable blood supply. And you'll feel good knowing you've helped change a life. To learn more, visit www.redcross.org

The need is constant. The gratification is instant. Give blood.

FROM THE HEART OF ATLANTIC COUNTY MAGAZINE

Brackets.

Cinderella Story.

Sweet Sixteen.

Final Four.

Even people who have absolutely zero interest in sports the other 11 months of the year know these terms. March Madness means everyone has a chance. Well, at least the 68 teams picked for the tournament. Outside of the Super Bowl, it's easily the biggest sporting event on the calendar.

Brackets (and office pools) give all of us a chance to take part.

So...who's your pick?

March Madness Activities

- Throw a viewing party - March Madness means parties. With games being played all month long just pick a date when your favorite team is playing and invite some friends over to watch the game. Many fans will prepare basketball or college-themed food and drinks or decorate with basketball themed decorations.

- Fill out a bracket - No March Madness celebration is complete without brackets. Usually filled out among offices or groups of friends, brackets are a great way to make March Madness even more interesting. March Madness is unpredictable, so sometimes the strangest predictions can come true!

- Pick a team and watch the games - Watching the games is an important part of celebrating March Madness. Pick a team to root for and join in on the fun, before you know it you will be cheering along with millions of other fans.

Why We Love March Madness

- Underdog stories - Who doesn't love an underdog story? March Madness utilizes a seeding system that sets the stage perfectly each year for an underdog to upset a highly ranked team. Even if you aren't an avid fan of college sports or basketball it is easy to root for a team that no one saw coming.

- School spirit - March Madness is great opportunity to rekindle some passion for your old alma mater. With so many teams involved in the men's and women's tournaments, odds are you've either attended or have some type of connection with at least one school in the tournament. Dust off that old college sweater and support your school!

- Its single elimination - One of the most exciting aspects of March Madness is its single elimination format. Each team is playing for their lives in the tournament so every game matters. Even if you aren't familiar with any of the schools playing in the tournament, it is easy to get invested when every game feels like the finals.

The 2025 March Madness tournament starts with Selection Sunday on March 16 as 68 teams will play in the 2025 NCAA tournament for men's basketball. Check out the full schedule below:

Selection Sunday: 6 p.m. ET Sunday, March 16 on CBS

Second round: March 22-23

 Catering & Events Director, Blue Dog Hospitality Group

Name and Location: Tennessee Avenue Beer Hall is nestled in the middle of the iconic Orange Loop at 133 S Tennessee Ave in Atlantic City.

Hours of Operation: We are open Wednesday-Thursday from 11:30 am - 11:00 pm, Friday from 11:30 am - 1 am, Saturday from 10:00am - 1 am, and Sunday from 10:00 am - 11:00 pm.

Parking Directions/Tips: Free parking lot across the street!

What does your venue specialize in? 40 taps. Award-winning food. Live music. Where culinary excellence meets vibrant entertainment in the heart of Atlantic City. At the Tennessee Avenue Beer Hall, we redefine the dining and social scene, blending award-winning gastropub food, hand-crafted cocktails, and the best beer list in South Jersey to create a destination that transcends the ordinary. Whether you're enjoying a laid-back evening with friends or celebrating a special occasion, our commitment to providing an unparalleled experience ensures that every visit is a memorable celebration of craft, flavor, and rhythm.

What is the current reason one MUST come to your venue? There are little to no venues that offer over 40 of the best beers on tap and over 80 bottles and cans to choose from!

Why is your venue a necessary part of Atlantic City? Part of Tennessee Avenue restaurant group, we helped pioneer the revamping of Atlantic City. We wanted to give Atlantic City a mainstream and somewhere safe for people to enjoy outside of the casinos.

Do you have a signature dish? Our Kentucky Ave Chicken Sandwich is a must have, with Japanese Pepper Spiced Chicken, Kimchi Slaw & Sweet Chili Aioli.

Please share any important information locals and visitors should know about: Our Venue also hosts private events for any occasion. And we know how to throw an unforgettable experience at Tennessee Avenue Beer Hall! From a girls-night-out, to a family reunion, birthday or holiday party, wedding reception or engagement shower, and everything in between – we have you covered! Our packages start at only $26 per person, and all options can be customized and personalized - just ask!

What are some other special reasons to come visit? There is always something to do at Tennessee Ave Beer Hall, be it Quizzo on Wednesday Nights at 8 pm, pop up Paint and Sip Events, Live Music every week, and Comedy Specials!

Do you have any weekly specials or upcoming events? We offer $5 Happy Hour weekdays 3-6pm, and all-day happy hour on Wednesdays. Live music, craft cocktails, the best beer list in the city with over 40 taps and 80 cans/bottles. We are also hosting Saint Patrick's Day on Tennessee Ave this year! And we're currently recruiting people for our Kazoo band during the parade!

ROSEMARY MARTIN & Kato

“I like to think that the secret of The Seeing Eye is in the magic of the match,” Rosemary said. “Kato is the perfect combination of my first two guides. He has the confidence and diligence of Jordan, the affection of Star, and is as loyal as both.”

Rosemary is a contract specialist for a federal agency and works on a military base. “My building holds about 800 people, and Kato was able to locate my cubicle after only a few trips with little direction from me. I’m not sure who will be more excited to go back into the office once COVID-related restrictions are lifted,” she said.

Let Them Eat (King) Cake—Everything You Need To Know About Mardi Gras, Why It's Celebrated and When Fat Tuesday 2025 Takes Place

What is the meaning behind Mardi Gras and what is Fat Tuesday? The words “Mardi Gras” are synonymous with extravagance and indulgence: big parties, large crowds, boisterous parades, colorful masks and... did we say big parties? Although Mardi Gras itself is a single Tuesday, it's part of Carnival, a larger, weeks-long celebration of never-ending carousing before the more solemn religious season of Lent and the preparation for Easter begins in the Christian faith.

Mardi Gras (and Carnival) is celebrated in cities around the world, but the most popular hotspots for the festivities are the French Quarter in New Orleans, Louisiana, and Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. If you can't make it to either of those locations for Fat Tuesday 2025, you can still celebrate Mardi Gras with a delicious king cake shared amongst your friends! Here is everything you need to know about the season of Mardi Gras, including why it's celebrated, when Mardi Gras 2025 is, how long it lasts and what Fat Tuesday means.

What is Mardi Gras? French for “Fat Tuesday,” Mardi Gras falls on the day before Ash Wednesday each year. Mardi Gras Day is the culmination of the Carnival season, a weeks-long party of excessive, over-the-top celebrations. There are parades, live music, festivals and balls held during Carnival, complete with colorful costumes, detailed masks, tons of delicious food and lots of booze!

What is Fat Tuesday? During the 40 days of Lent, Christians focus on prayer and their relationship with God, typically by giving up or abstaining from something they enjoy (like chocolate or television) or making more of an effort to be kind and charitable.

According to History.com, it was customary for followers to use up all the rich foods in their home in the days leading up to Lent—like meat, eggs, milk, lard and cheese—ahead of the 40 days of lighter eating and fasting. Calling this season of the winter “Carnival” also has origins in the tradition of fasting: “carnelevarium” means to take away meat in Medieval Latin.

As Britannica reported, Fat Tuesday is also called Shrove Tuesday (because Christians in the Middle Ages would confess and be “shriven” or absolved from their sins on this day), Carnival Tuesday, or Pancake Tuesday, since making pancakes used up many of the ingredients that were forbidden during the fasting season of Lent.

Is Mardi Gras the same thing as Carnival? While Mardi Gras is often used to refer to revelries that take place between January and March leading up to Lent, Carnival season is the time period during which those raucous celebrations take place—with Fat Tuesday being the final night of festivities.

Carnival officially begins each year on January 6, the Christian Feast of Epiphany, also called Twelfth Night or Three Kings Day. So, while Mardi Gras and Carnival both celebrate the same thing, Carnival spans several weeks (sometimes up to two or three months) and really ramps up in the last few weeks leading up to Mardi Gras, which is the last night of merriment. Think of it like the Christmas holiday season lasting from Thanksgiving weekend through New Year's Day.

Why is Mardi Gras celebrated? The history of Mardi Gras actually goes back centuries, to pagan celebrations of spring and fertility like Saturnalia, according to History.com. When Christianity arrived in Rome, religious leaders incorporated those popular traditions into the new faith. Since Christians are typically on their best behavior during Lent, the Carnival season and Mardi Gras became a time for people to let loose before the 40 days of inner reflection and repenting between Ash Wednesday and Easter Sunday—getting out of their system everything that is forbidden during Lent. Modern-day Carnival and Mardi Gras have evolved into more secular celebrations, but the spirit of revelry and debauchery is just as fierce!

How long does Mardi Gras last? While Mardi Gras is often used interchangeably for Carnival (especially in New Orleans), Mardi Gras is technically only one day: the Tuesday before Ash Wednesday. The Carnival season, however, always begins on January 6, which is the Christian holiday of Epiphany or Three Kings Day. How long it lasts can vary year to year, since the date of Ash Wednesday fluctuates depending on when Easter Sunday is.

Is Mardi Gras only celebrated in New Orleans? Mardi Gras is a legal holiday in the state of Louisiana and is celebrated throughout the state. The bon temps in the French Quarter of New Orleans are arguably the most famous, but Baton Rouge, Shreveport, Lafayette and the Cajun Bayou are just a few of the Mardi Gras festivities in Louisiana. But other states in the U.S. celebrate Mardi Gras as well, like Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Texas, Missouri, New Mexico and California, to name a few.

Carnival and Mardi Gras celebrations are also very popular in Italy, France, Germany, Belgium, Colombia and Martinique. Plus the Rio Carnival in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, is considered to be one the biggest celebrations in the world.

What does King Cake have to do with Mardi Gras? One of the iconic parts of Mardi Gras in New Orleans is the sweet, buttery pastry known as king cake. Tied to Carnival season begins on Epiphany, the seasonal treat typically shows up in bakeries around January 6 for Three Kings Day and sticks around until Fat Tuesday, just before Lent begins.

Today's king cakes have a tiny plastic baby baked inside, but the tradition began with a bean or a pea baked inside the cake. Centuries ago, whoever received a slice of cake with a pea or bean got to be king or queen for a day, symbolizing that their year was beginning with good luck. The little plastic baby inside modern king cakes is a nod to the three wise men who visited Baby Jesus on Twelfth Night, and it is tradition for the person who finds the baby in their slice to host next year's Mardi Gras party and buy the king cake.

Why are masks worn during Carnival and Mardi Gras? During the early Carnival and Mardi Gras celebrations, revelers wore masks and elaborate costumes to remain anonymous while mingling with different social classes and participating in activities they wouldn't normally do, like drinking, dancing and gambling.

Today, Mardi Gras-goers around the world still enjoy the tradition of donning masks as they shed their inhibitions and take part in the spirit of the party—because nobody knows who you are when your face is covered by a masquerade mask! Plus, the decorative and colorful facial coverings add to the magical spectacle that is Mardi Gras.

While wearing a mask is an optional part of most Carnival celebrations, it's actually a requirement in Louisiana for participants on a Mardi Gras parade float! In fact, it's illegal in the state to wear a mask (certain exceptions such as Halloween aside) unless it's Mardi Gras. And on Fat Tuesday in New Orleans, a city ordinance decrees that all masks must be removed after 6 p.m.!

Pet of the Week

SAGE

Sage came to us from our friends in the Carolinas. She is an amazingly sweet, calm spayed female. Sage is housebroken and prefers to go on grass than concrete. She has been in the Director's upstairs office and had perfect manners. She does not seem to care about cats or birds and seems to like being around other dogs. A meet and greet for another dog would be a good idea. This is a very special girl that will make an awesome pet. She walks nicely on the leash and had very good manners.

BLACK HISTORY MONTH & THE SEEING EYE

This Black History Month, The Seeing Eye is proud that since its inception, it has served all people who are blind from all backgrounds. The Seeing Eye was founded in Nashville, Tennessee, on January 29, 1929, by Morris Frank and Dorothy Harrison Eustis. The first two Seeing Eye graduates were matched with dogs in February. In March, the second class arrived -- and a woman, Blanche Eddy, graduated with a dog named Beta.

In Fall, another applicant wrote to The Seeing Eye asking to be matched with a dog. This man, Herbert Douglas, was Black. G. William "Willi" Debetaz, a Swiss-born apprentice instructor, wrote to Frank and asked if the school would accept a Black student.

Frank, raised by a progressive Jewish mother who had welcomed George Washington Carver into their home, did not hesitate: "We are an organization to furnish dogs for the deserving blind, and I do not think we can discriminate and still call ourselves a non-profit organization."

Douglas, a resident of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, arrived in December 1930 and graduated in early 1931 with a dog named Lisa. In 1970, Douglas wrote to The Seeing Eye:

"I am still able to walk about three miles every other day at the age of 83 years. I want to thank you for giving me the confidence to be independent and make a living and making it possible for my children to get a good education."

Speaking of his children, Herbert Douglas Jr. won the bronze medal in the long jump at the 1948 Summer Olympics in London!

Picture Description: Herbert Douglas stands proudly with Lisa, his German shepherd Seeing Eye dog, at his side.

PPAWS (People & Puppies at Work for Sight) is a dedicated group of local families from Atlantic and Cape May Counties, which raise these amazing puppies for The Seeing Eye. Until a Seeing Eye dog is ready for training, he or she lives with a puppy raising or foster family that gives the dog love, gentle guidance, and consistent care. These volunteers nurture their puppy to accomplish its special destiny.

If you are interested in raising a puppy for The Seeing Eye, call Peter at (609)804-8774 or visit seeingeye.org/raise for info.

10 Fun Facts About the Month of March

1. March was once considered the first month of the year. Welcome to the third month of the year—or if you were born before 150 B.C., the first! According to the oldest Roman calendars, one year was 10 months long, beginning in March and ending in December. It may sound crazy, but you can still see traces of this old system in our modern calendar: Because December was the 10th month, it was named for the number 10 in Latin (decem), just like September was named for seven (septem). January and February were the exceptions: They were just two nameless months called "winter," proving that winter is literally so awful, it doesn't even deserve a spot on the calendar.
2. March symbolizes transformation and new growth: As the bridge from winter to spring, March carries strong symbolism: new growth and transformation. It's the time when animals awake from hibernation and when people around the world partake in spring celebrations—along with spring cleaning rituals to make their homes feel new. It also heralds the start of a new astrological year, transitioning from Pisces season to Aries season.
3. March has two birth flowers: March's birth flowers, delightful daffodils and charming jonquils, have different meanings. But take note: All jonquils are daffodils, but not all daffodils are jonquils! Daffodils represent rebirth and hope, while jonquils represent affection and love. Daffodils are believed to have been named after Narcissus, the son of the river god, Cephissus, from Greek mythology. Legend has it that Narcissus fell in love with his own reflection in the water. He was so entranced that he fell into the pool and drowned, with one daffodil blooming in his place of death.
4. March has two birthstones: March has double birthstone magic: Aquamarine, with its watery name, was like a lucky charm for Roman sailors, who believed it protected them on the high seas. Some also thought it could cool tempers, prevent poisoning and increase the chance of epiphanies. Meanwhile, its birthstone buddy, bloodstone, has an association with bravery and vitality that goes back to the Middle Ages and Christian legends.
5. March is the best month for basketball—and the worst month for productivity: For civilians, the month of March is known for one thing above all others: brackets. March Madness, as the NCAA calls it, runs from March 18 to April 7 this year. But despite being an exciting month for college-hoops fans, March is not the best for U.S. employers. According to the global outplacement firm Challenger, Gray & Christmas, productivity decreases during March Madness, with U.S. employers losing around $13.3 billion in productivity during the tournament.
6. March is the most popular month for vasectomies: March Madness is a cherished time to reacquire oneself with the couch, especially during the early tournament days when dozens of games unfold consecutively. In other words, it's the perfect week to recover from a vasectomy! According to Live Science, the number of vasectomies surges by 50% during the first week of March Madness. Why? Patients typically need "at least a day with ice" to keep swelling down, urologist Stephen Jones, MD, told Fox News, "so if they're going to spend a whole day doing nothing, it's not hard to figure out that they'd want to do it on a day they'd like to be sitting in front of the television."
7. March was named after Mars: March was actually named for the Latin Martius—aka Mars, the Roman god of war and a mythical ancestor of the Roman people via his wolf-suckling sons, Romulus and Remus. With the winter frosts melting and the ground becoming fertile for harvest again in the Northern Hemisphere, the month of March was perfect for farmers to resume farming, as well as for warriors to resume warring. Incidentally, the Pentagon still seems to agree with this Roman tradition: With the exception of the recent war in Afghanistan, almost all major U.S.-NATO-led military operations since the invasion of Vietnam have begun in the month of March. To name a few: Vietnam (initiated March 8, 1965), Iraq (March 20, 2003) and Libya (March 19, 2011).
8. The Ides of March led to Caesar's downfall: We've all heard it uttered, but what does "beware the Ides of March" actually mean? On the Roman calendar, the midpoint of every month was known as the Ides. The Ides of March fell on March 15. This day was supposed to correlate with the first full moon of the year (remember, winter didn't count then), and as a result, it was marked by religious ceremonies. But thanks to Shakespeare's Julius Caesar, we know it for another reason. Supposedly, in 44 B.C., a seer told Julius Caesar that his downfall would come no later than the Ides of March. Caesar ignored him, and when the fated day rolled around, he joked with the seer, "The Ides of March have come." The seer replied, "Aye, Caesar; but not gone." Caesar continued on to a senate meeting at the Theatre of Pompey and was summarily murdered by as many as 60 conspirators. Ironically, the spot where Caesar was assassinated is protected in today's Rome as a no-kill cat sanctuary. So if someone tells you "beware the Ides of March," they are probably just being a jerk or letting you know they've read Shakespeare.
9. March 1: As the saying goes, March comes "in like a lion and out like a lamb." That was certainly true on March 1, 2007, when a detachment of 170 Swiss infantrymen accidentally invaded neighboring Liechtenstein after getting lost on a training mission. Luckily, after explaining the mistake to Liechtenstein, the Swiss army was given directions and returned home safely.
10. March 2: On this date in 2016, NASA astronaut Scott Kelly returned to Earth after nearly one full year on the International Space Station, setting a new record for the longest uninterrupted trip to space.
