"Don't Forget to Write"
 by Author Sara Goodman Confino

Date: Sunday, November 10 - Time: 10:30 am

Location: Marjorie & Lewis Katz JCC - 501 N Jerome Ave., Margate, NJ 08402

Sarah Goodman Confino's latest novel, Don't Forget to Write, straddles worlds as well as centuries. It begins with a banishing, the result of a young woman's brief seduction of a rabbi's son. Following her very public embarrassment, Marilyn is given the choice of marrying the rabbi's son or being sent to live with her great-aunt, Ada.

Marilyn is appalled by both options. There is no way she will agree to a shotgun marriage, and the only things she has heard about Ada make her out to be an unforgiving old woman. It's 1960, and Marilyn wants to go back to college and be free of her stern father and her cowed mother, who lives under his thumb in ways Marilyn vows never to emulate, if and when she marries.

With no marriage in the offing, Marilyn is sent to Philadelphia, where Ada lives. Marilyn's first impression of her great-aunt, beyond her wild driving home from the train station, is that she is all about rules: what Marilyn can and can't do, and how she will be punished for doing or not doing. Even Marilyn's lipstick is confiscated; Ada says that it makes her look like a "tart." Marilyn envisions a long, cruel, prison-like summer.

HOROSCOPE

NOVEMBER 7 - 13, 2024

ARIES (Mar. 21-April 20)

This week, your focus is on your career and long-term ambitions. You might feel a surge of energy and a drive to take charge of your professional life. It's a great time to make bold decisions, but try not to rush through them. Consider the bigger picture and potential long-term effects.

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21)

This week encourages personal growth and the expansion of your horizons. Whether through travel, learning, or embracing new perspectives, you're ready to explore new territory. Take this time to invest in your education, skills, or spiritual development. However, don't overextend yourself—balance is key.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)

This is a week of emotional depth and financial reflection. You might feel a strong pull to address deeper issues that you've been avoiding. Confronting hidden fears or unresolved emotions could lead to much-needed healing. Financially, shared resources or investments may require your attention, so approach these matters carefully.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

Your relationships, whether romantic, familial, or professional, are in the spotlight this week. It's a great time to engage in honest conversations and resolve any misunderstandings. You may find that clearing the air with a partner or friend helps strengthen your bond.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)

This week, your focus is on health, daily routines, and personal well-being. You may feel the urge to organize or streamline your work and home life, making things more efficient. It's an excellent time to reassess your habits and implement small changes that can improve your health, whether that's adjusting your diet, starting a new exercise routine, or simply making time for self-care.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)

Creativity and self-expression are the main themes this week. You might feel a burst of inspiration that encourages you to dive into a project or explore a new hobby. Whether it's artistic, entrepreneurial, or romantic, indulge in the activities that bring you joy and allow you to express your individuality.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)

This week, your focus is on home and family matters. You might feel the urge to make changes in your living environment, whether it's redecorating, reorganizing, or considering a move. A deeper connection with family members or loved ones could also emerge, as you may feel more attuned to their needs.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)

This is a week for communication and learning. You may find yourself in many discussions—whether with friends, colleagues, or loved ones. Your ability to articulate your thoughts will be heightened, so make sure to express your ideas clearly. It's also a great week to pick up a new skill, attend a workshop, or explore something that stimulates your mind.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

This week, financial matters and personal values are in the spotlight. You may find yourself reevaluating your budget, setting new financial goals, or reassessing how you use your resources. This is a good time to take a more practical approach to your finances.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22.-Jan. 20)

Personal growth and transformation are the themes for you this week. You may feel a sense of renewal or the urge to reinvent yourself in some way. Whether that's changing your approach to a personal goal or letting go of old habits, this is a time of deep evolution.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)

This week, focus on introspection and healing. You may feel the need to retreat and reflect on past experiences or emotional issues that need resolution. Take time to heal and prioritize your mental and emotional well-being. Your intuition will be strong, and you may find that journaling or meditation helps bring clarity.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

Your social life and connections with others take center stage this week. It's a great time to expand your network, whether through work, social events, or online communities. If you've been feeling disconnected, this is an excellent time to reconnect with old friends or make new ones.

Veterans Day, observed annually on November 11, is a tribute to military veterans who have served in the U.S. Armed Forces. Not to be confused with Memorial Day, which honors those who died while in service, Veterans Day honors all military veterans, including those still with us.

When is Veterans Day 2024?

Veterans Day is observed annually on November 11. It's a holiday honoring men and women who have served in the U.S. armed forces, on the anniversary of the end of World War I.

History of Veterans Day

Veterans Day, originally celebrated as Armistice Day, was first issued on November 11, 1919, by President Woodrow Wilson a year after the end of World War I. The purpose of Armistice Day was to honor the fallen soldiers of the Great War for their sacrifice and bravery. Seven years later, in 1926, Congress adopted a resolution requesting that President Calvin Coolidge issue annual proclamations on November 11, making Armistice Day a legal holiday.

In 1945, World War II veteran Raymond Weeks had the idea to expand Armistice Day to celebrate all veterans rather than just the ones who died in World War I. He led a delegation to General Dwight Eisenhower, who was all for the idea. Weeks then organized the first Veterans Day celebration in 1945 in Alabama and every year since, until he died in 1985. In 1982, he was honored by President Reagan with the Presidential Citizenship Medal. Weeks was also named the 'Father of Veterans Day' by Elizabeth Dole.

In 1954, Ed Rees, the U.S. Representative from Emporia, Kansas, presented a bill to establish the holiday to Congress. Eisenhower, who was then the president and also from Kansas, signed the bill into law on May 26, 1954, eight and a half years after Raymond Weeks held the first Veterans Day. After having been through both World War II and the Korean War, the 83rd U.S. Congress — at the urge of the veterans' service organizations — amended the Act of 1938 by striking out the word 'Armistice' and inserting the word 'Veterans.' With the approval of this legislation on June 1, 1954, November 11 became a day to honor American veterans of all wars.

The National Veterans Award was also created in 1954, first received by Congressman Rees for his support in making Veterans Day a federal holiday. Though the holiday is currently and was originally celebrated on November 11, the day was moved to the fourth Monday of October in 1971 due to the Uniform Monday Holiday Act. Finally, on September 20, 1975, President Gerald R. Ford signed a law that returned the annual observance of Veterans Day to its original date of November 11, beginning in 1978.

The holiday is observed by the federal government on a Friday, if the holiday falls on Saturday, or on a Monday, if the holiday falls on a Sunday. Federal government closings are established by the U.S. Office of Personnel Management. State and local government closings are determined locally and non-government businesses can close or remain open as they see fit, regardless of federal, state, or local government operation determinations.

The United States Senate Resolution 143, which was passed on August 4, 2001, designated the week of November 11 through November 17, 2001, as National Veterans Awareness Week. The resolution called for educational efforts directed at elementary and secondary school students concerning the contributions and sacrifices of veterans.

Veterans Day Traditions

- Give military-themed gifts - Most veterans cherish their time spent serving their country and one of the best ways to honor that service is to present military-themed gifts like bottle openers (apparently a 'thing' among vets,) wooden U.S. flags, or specially-designed pens to the veterans in your life.
- Check out Veterans Day restaurant deals - Big-name restaurants are looking out for veterans-turned-foodies with Veterans Day deals on free dinners (Chili's, Applebee's, and all California Pizza Kitchens) as well as breakfast specials (Golden Corral restaurants from 5–9 A.M.).
- Ship some cookies overseas - Remember your active service military friends and veterans' organizations overseas with a goodie bag of cookies by Operation Cookies, a company owned and operated by veterans sending delicious, home-baked cookies to homesick military personnel stationed anywhere in the world.

Veterans Day By The Numbers

- 19.5 million – approximate number of veterans in the US.
- 9 million – number of veterans over the age of 65.
- 5.06 million – number of veterans receiving disability compensation.
- 2 million – number of female veterans of those receiving disability compensation.
- 500k – number of World War II veterans still living in the US.
- 1.56 million – number of veterans in California, the highest number in the country.
- 1.46 million – number of veterans in Texas, the second-highest number in the country.
- 11% – percentage of veterans who experience homelessness.
- 50% – percentage of veterans experiencing homelessness who also live with a mental illness like PTSD.

How to Observe Veterans Day

- Hire a veteran - Veterans face barriers to employment including lack of preparation for civilian jobs and unrealistic expectations for the kind of work and salary they can expect when they get home. But many leaving the military may have led troops into battle, often on multiple deployments, and as a result, they make fantastic leaders and employees.
- Go for a run - Do a sponsored run for an organization like Homes for Troops, which assists injured veterans by building homes. They specialize in offering support in fundraising so that you can focus on doing the run and raising as much money as you can to support veterans.
- Offer freebies for veterans - Whether you run a business or work for one, thanking veterans for their service by offering free products on Veterans Day is a great way of showing your support. Whether it's tax return help or simply a cup of coffee, what can your business offer to thank a veteran today?

Greater Atlantic City Concierge Association's Hot Spot:
Distro Fest 3

Submitted by: Judy Brenna, GACCA Communications Director
 Catering & Events Director, Blue Dog Hospitality Group

That structure that juts out into the sea, paralleling Steel Pier, has changed hands over the years. First it was the "Million Dollar Pier" from 1906 to 1981, then it was refurbished into Ocean One Shopping Mall in 1983, then The Playground emerged in 2015. As we witnessed a slow yet steady mass exodus of the Playground during the pandemic, including my personal favorite spot, One Atlantic, where you could literally stand over the Atlantic Ocean during an elegant affair and get lost in the abyss, a new company emerged, offering an immense value to the entire city: ACX1 Studios. Fun fact alert, you can still have your wedding here. This isn't new news, I know. I'm just prepping with some background before we get into the nitty gritty. Plus, you guys know I'm a history nerd and I thrive on talking about the evolution of spaces and cities and people and such, so, bear with me, people.

More background! ACX1 Studio's unique concept includes a mix of retail, restaurants, entertainment, and educational space, welcoming the music and film industries to the resort town. They offer film equipment rentals, crew services, sound stages, catering, and postproduction facilities; a one-stop-shop experience for all your production needs. Their mission is to help revitalize family entertainment and shopping on the Atlantic City Boardwalk while introducing new and exciting attractions, which include television and movie productions, along with social media production spaces for audio and video.

Nitty gritty alert. This week they are hosting "Distro Fest 3", from November 8th through the 11th, promising an exhilarating celebration of creativity, music, education, and culture. This 3 day event will feature over 50 major music industry speakers, over 70 performers, a music film festival, and epic afterparties each day. Following the success of Distro Fest 1 and 2, this year's festival will elevate the festival experience with an even more diverse lineup and a host of new activities designed to engage and inspire, including a Music Video Awards Show, honoring best music videos, music supervisors, podcasts, and social media videos to name a few.

Distro Fest was created by music industry vet, Rob Schwartz. His ultimate goal was to build a music festival where his independent distribution artists can play on a major stage with headlining artists, while also building around it to help teach artists in the music industry the potential career opportunities in the entertainment field. Rob is the Co-Owner and Chief Music Officer at ACX1, and also, the co-owner of WHO?MAG Distribution, Governor of the Philly Chapter of the Recording Academy (Grammys), member of the Guild of Music Supervisors, and an international music industry speaker. Needless to say, (in Ron Burgundy's voice) this guy is kind of a big deal. And Atlantic City is very lucky to have him at the helm.

Distro Fest 3 will feature legendary performers like Pretty Poison, Paul Anthony (Full Force), Tuff Crew, Mikey D, Dinco D (Leaders of the New School), Gina Thompson, and more. It will also feature performances by social media stars like Andie Case (1.4 million YouTube subs), Andy Darling and DJ Soulchild AC (both with over 1 million TikTok followers), and 8 yr old Zoe Erianna (over 660,000 IG followers). Other performers include EYJAA (Iceland), Chief Reckah (Toronto), VALE!ULB ft. 3x Grammy winning producer Deezle (Drake, Nicki Minaj, and Lil Wayne), AGT's Camille K, Vaultt Music (L. Haggood, Silence Da 5th, Coke, and Grammy nominated Fantom of the Beat), BeyonDaFence Ent. (David Benton, Shay Samuels, and DeeBeeJr.), Gran Centennial, Mill of Fire's Fire Nation Flamez. . . the list goes on and on.

Now you're probably asking yourself, "Why is this festival so important?" "Why is she talking about this?" "Who the heck is Deezle??" Take a breath (in through the nose, out through the mouth, counting to 3), then try this on for size. What ACX1 Studios and Distro Fest 3 brings to this city, and this county, is simple. Expansion. For the arts, for education, and for tourism. All of this is putting Atlantic City on the map for film and music, rivaling other major cities. Yes, this town has been known for a long time for hosting great shows. I have talked in the past about growing up and coming to see major performers at an extremely young age, like Frank Sinatra, George Burns, David Copperfield, Bobby Rydell, Sammy Davis, Jr., Doug Henning, (in the voice of Yul Brenner) etcetera, etcetera, etcetera. . . But Atlantic City has the potential to be a major powerhouse in the US for music, now that ACX1 is here. Atlantic City was lacking one fundamental thing that ACX1 Studios now provides, a place to stay, build, create, and call home.

Now for some of you, like me, who are of a different generation, and we won't name which one for fear of aging oneself (X), reading the names listed above and not recognizing some artists, fear not. This festival ranges in all sorts of music genres. A true to its word 3-day event packed with entertainment, panel discussions, viewings, awards, and afterparties. Distro Fest 3. I encourage you to give it a whirl. Distro Fest 3. And for the concierges reading this, I implore you to recommend this to your guests and clients. Distro Fest 3. Now. . . If you're not excited by the time you're reading this sentence, stop what you're doing immediately and contact your primary physician.

4 REASONS TO LIST YOUR HOME IN THE FALL

You've likely heard that summer is the peak selling season. But listing in the fall has its advantages, too! Here are four top reasons to list your home this fall:

1. Close before the tax year ends. It typically takes one to two months from signing a purchase agreement to closing, so sellers wishing to sell their home before the calendar year ends need to consider listing in October. This is particularly helpful if you've already purchased a home and want to finish the year with a level balance sheet.
2. Buyers are more serious. Buyers who shop in the fall months are often more serious than spring and summer buyers. Many spring and summer buyers will buy if they can close before the school year starts, but the impetus for fall buyers is usually more immediate, like a job relocation or a changing family. This means deals are more likely to close and you're less likely to be hassled by showing the home to unmotivated buyers.
3. More attention from agents. The busiest time of year for real estate professionals is summer. Sellers who list in summer have to compete for time with their agent, lenders and inspectors who juggles multiple clients during the peak summer months. Selling in fall means your agent can devote their full attention to marketing and selling your home.
4. Fall décor is cozy. Boost your home's appeal by making it feel like a cozy home. Tasteful fall décor like wreaths, pumpkins and festive centerpieces can help buyers picture their families in your home.

Alyssa & Autumn

Alyssa, who lives with retinal dystrophy, never let her gradual vision loss stop her from navigating her small hometown and high school hallways by herself. However, soon after Alyssa graduated high school, she realized that college was a whole different ball game.

Though Alyssa had strong orientation and mobility skills, her new college campus was far more expansive than her small hometown and she found it difficult to navigate alone. “I hated it. I didn’t get out much. I would go to class, come back, and that was it,” Alyssa explains.

Alyssa soon realized it was time for a change, so she decided to consult The Seeing Eye’s Admissions and Instruction & Training teams. Alyssa’s strong orientation and mobility skills, along with her low vision, made her a candidate for a Seeing Eye® dog, and after speaking with the instructors, Alyssa felt confident that this was the right place for her to apply.

In 2015, The Seeing Eye matched Alyssa with Autumn, a black Lab/golden retriever cross. “When we went for our first walk, I cried from happiness the entire time,” Alyssa remembers. “It was one of the most magical experiences of my life. I will never forget it.”

With newfound confidence and freedom, Alyssa could fully enjoy her college experience. “A month after I got matched with her, I started going out to things in college and started going to the gym — little things that I just would never do before. Having Autumn by my side opened everything up for me.”

The confidence to explore new social environments with ease was a benefit Alyssa had not realized a guide dog could provide her with. Even after Alyssa had completed her studies, she and Autumn continued to be an adventurous duo, especially when Alyssa went on a backpacking trip in Canada. “Autumn kept me safe. She told me every hiking route, every hole in the ground, and every time we had to pause for traffic.”

Today, Alyssa is a developmental psychologist, working with developmentally atypical children in hospital settings with her second Seeing Eye dog, a black Lab/golden retriever cross named Trexler. Trexler helps Alyssa navigate her daily commute, workplace, and errands.

When it was time for Autumn to retire, Alyssa chose to keep her as a pet in her own home, an option all Seeing Eye handlers have since The Seeing Eye grants them full ownership rights over their Seeing Eye dogs. Autumn is enjoying retired life and is the best of friends with Trexler. “They’re always together — cuddling together, playing together, and even sleeping in the same bed together,” Alyssa says fondly.

The Holiday Cards Are Here!

This year we are once again offering holiday cards and the 2025 Seeing Eye Puppy Calendar!

This year's cards feature a black Labrador retriever puppy wearing a large red bow, a collage of four puppies frolicking in the snow, and, from The Seeing Eye Archives, a historic black and white photo of Morris Frank carrying gifts into a home, guided by Buddy. The Christmas wreath on the front door has been colorized.

The 2025 Puppy Calendar features beautiful pictures of our Seeing Eye puppies, taken by our volunteer puppy raisers!

For more information, go to www.SeeingEye.org/card.

And to go with that card, how about the perfect gift for that special someone... or dog... in your life!

We have a wonderful selection of Seeing Eye clothing, caps, backpacks, mugs, insulated water bottles, dog bowls, blankets, and of course, plush puppies. To see what's available, go to www.SeeingEye.org/store.

Happy shopping!

PPAWS (People & Puppies at Work for Sight) is a dedicated group of local families from Atlantic and Cape May Counties, which raise these amazing puppies for The Seeing Eye. Until a Seeing Eye dog is ready for training, he or she lives with a puppy raising or foster family that gives the dog love, gentle guidance, and consistent care. These volunteers nurture their puppy to accomplish its special destiny. If you are interested in raising a puppy for The Seeing Eye, call Peter at (609)804-8774 or visit seeingeye.org/raise for info.

Atlantic City Veterans Memorials:

The New Jersey Korean War Memorial - The New Jersey Korean War Memorial features a sculpture of a group of soldiers under fire, a soldier and nurse helping a wounded soldier and a 12-foot tall statue of "the Mourning Soldier" clutching dog tags from fallen soldiers. The back wall of the memorial, beneath an eternal flame, are the names of the 822 New Jerseyans who were killed or still missing in action, as well as a wall honoring the five New Jersey servicemen who were awarded the Medal of Honor for heroism. Location: Brighton Park, Atlantic City

The World War I Memorial - The World War I Memorial was modeled after a Greek Temple and measures 124 feet in diameter and consists of 16 large Doric columns. The rotunda houses a 9' tall bronze statue titled "Liberty in Distress" and the names of battles in which Atlantic City soldiers fought are etched in the top along with medallions of four of the armed forces. Location: O'Donnell Memorial Park, Atlantic City, NJ

Bernie Friedenberg World War II Memorial - The Bernie Friedenberg World War II Memorial consists of a two-figure soldier sculpture with granite hardscaping, surrounded by "The Cost of Freedom Circle" containing granite inlays, each of which summarizes a historic moment of U.S involvement in World War II. Bernie Friedenberg grew up in Atlantic City and attended area schools. He was a decorated non-combatant medic who attained the rank of Staff Sergeant. He received many medals in his many deployments during the war including a Silver Star for his heroism on Omaha Beach on D-Day. It was here that Friedenberg, without regard to his own personal safety, entered a minefield five separate times, retrieving a wounded soldier each time. Location: O'Donnell Memorial Park, Atlantic City, NJ

Purple Heart Memorial - Inscription: "Dedicated to all men and women wounded in all our wars. My stone is red for the blood they shed. The medal I bear is my country's way to show they care.
