FROM THE HEART OF ATLANTIC COUNTY MAGAZINE

If you've got too much candy after Halloween, rid your house of excess sugar and donate Halloween candy you don't want your kids eating! We've found five charitable organizations where you can donate Halloween candy. From our troops to kids in the hospital to local soup kitchens, we found places that will put your excess candy to better use than cavities and tummy aches.

1. Operation Shoebox - operationshoebox.com

Operation Shoebox is perhaps the most famous of the organizations that collect and send care packages and donate Halloween candy to troops overseas. Operation Shoebox accepts individually wrapped candy all year, though it's good to note that heat-resistant candies are preferred. Guess you'd better eat those Snickers! The address for where to ship your candy is on the website, and there's even a form to fill out and include if you'd like to receive a thank you and/or donation receipt.

2. Any Soldier - anysoldier.com

Like Operation Shoebox, Any Soldier accepts individually wrapped candy all year long, and heat-resistant candies are preferred. Any Soldier also allows you to search soldiers' wish lists and send donations directly overseas. While they have specific requests for their locations and situations, many soldiers say food and snacks (like candy!) are always appreciated.

3. Halloween Candy Buyback Program with Troopathon - troopathon.org

Participate in the Halloween Candy Buyback Program sponsored by Troopathon by collecting Halloween candy and sending it in. It's called a buyback program, but really, it's donating candy to be included in care packages for the troops. Last year over 20,000 pounds of candy were collected and sent overseas.

You can also send any personal messages from kids who donate their candy, and the messages will be included with the candy in the care packages.

Sweet Ways to Donate Halloween Candy: Ronald McDonald House, Operation Shoebox, and More

4. Soldiers' Angels - soldiersangels.org

Soldiers' Angels organizes Treats for Troops annually. Visit the candy map to find a Halloween candy donation drop-off point or register to start a drive of your own.

5. Ronald McDonald House Charities - rmhc.org

The Ronald McDonald House helps keep severely ill kids and their parents together during treatment. While there is no universal candy donation program, many locations accept donations of unopened candy for the families they're helping after Halloween.

Visit the RMHC Chapter search page to locate your nearest House and inquire about the specifics for candy donations.

6. Think Local

Finally, don't forget about your local soup kitchen, homeless shelter, food pantry, retirement home, or nursing home when thinking of where to donate Halloween candy. Many take donations of unopened candy for residents and guests year-round. Be sure to call first to find out if they accept treats, which your kids can deliver with a note and a non-cavity-filled smile.

A Weekly Guide to Health Awareness

YOGA POSE OF THE WEEK - Half Forward Bend (Ardha Uttanasana)

This flat-back forward bend (you may also hear it called "halfway lift") is most often done as part of a sun salutation sequence. As such, this yoga pose is often rushed, but it's worth it to take the time to work on it independently. Figuring out when your back is flat is part of developing body awareness.

At first, it's helpful to glance in the mirror. You can bring your hands off the ground and onto your legs to keep your back flat. Gently soften your knees as needed, too.

VITAMIN HIGHLIGHT - Selenium

It does a lot of things, like fighting off infections and helping your thyroid gland work. Most Americans get enough from what they eat, including meat, bread, and eggs. Too much can cause brittle nails, nausea, and irritability. Just four Brazil nuts could put you at your daily limit for selenium!

FROM THE HEART OF
ATLANTIC COUNTY
MAGAZINE

As the elevated need for food continues in the region, members of Beth El Synagogue, Congregation Beth Israel, Shirat Hayam, and Temple Beth Shalom as well as community individuals, hosted High Holidays collections to support Jewish Family Service of Atlantic & Cape May Counties (JFS). The agency received more than 200 bags of food which will stock the pantry's shelves to assist people in the community.

The synagogues and community members graciously donated many of JFS' top necessities including peanut butter, jelly, hearty soups, canned tuna, cereal, sauce, rice, pasta, vegetables, and snacks.

"With the generosity of congregation members and community residents, our food pantry can continue to serve thousands of people each year," said Andrea Steinberg, JFS Chief

Jewish Family Service High Holidays Food Drive
More Than 200 Bags Collected to Stock the Pantry

Executive Officer. "JFS continues to be a lifeline to provide hearty and nutritious perishable and non-perishable foods to people in need."

In addition, with Thanksgiving just around the corner, JFS is currently collecting essential holiday food items and monetary donations to provide to local families. A $45 donation to JFS allows the agency to purchase a turkey and side dishes for a family's holiday dinner. Food bags can also be donated with non-perishable items including macaroni & cheese, yams, stuffing, mashed potatoes, gravy, cranberry sauce, string beans, and corn.

Turkey Drive donations can be mailed to: JFS, 607 North Jerome Avenue, Margate, NJ 08402 or made online at: www.jfsatlantic.org. Non-perishable food donations can be delivered to JFS.

Whatever your reason, the need is constant and your contribution is important for a healthy and reliable blood supply. And you'll feel good knowing you've helped change a life. To learn more, visit www.redcross.org

Atlantic City's Favorite Magician
Submitted by: Judy Brenna, GACCA Communications Director
Catering & Events Director, Blue Dog Hospitality Group

JOE HOLIDAY
Atlantic City's
FAVORITE MAGICIAN

Who are we talking about? Atlantic City's Favorite Magician – Joe Holiday

Where are you located? Joe Holiday performs throughout the Atlantic City region. Currently Joe hosts "The Magic Comedy Hour", a unique interactive magic experience presented in the intimate 6th floor theater of the Club Wyndham Skyline Tower.

Parking directions: The resort offers self-parking for a flat rate of $15.00 per day for owners and $25.00 for non-owners.

Tell us a little about yourself? Joe Holiday is an award-winning magician who has been working in the entertainment industry for over 25 years. With his busy work schedule Joe makes hundreds of performances yearly for thousands of audiences all over the world. From Singapore and Seoul South Korea to the casinos of his hometown in Atlantic City, where Joe has been a featured performer at both the Trump Plaza and Showboat Casino Hotels.

Joe has appeared on international television and was the featured guest star in Harary's multi-million-dollar Illusion show "Mega Magic". The summer long run was seen by over a million people throughout Asia. Headlining on major cruise ships and appearing for corporate and industrial companies such as, Realage.com, Bradley Caldwell Inc. and the Trump Organization, Joe has been hailed as the redefinition of "HIP" in magic.

Amusement parks such as Fantasy Island in Beach Haven New Jersey, Kennywood Park in Pittsburgh Pennsylvania and Six Flags American in Largo, Maryland have all repeatedly booked Joe for several seasons to entertain their guests with his "Family Friendly" approach to magic and comedy.

Joe can also be seen promoting children's education and literacy with his assembly programs visiting elementary schools in the Northeast and Southern New Jersey where Joe lives with his wife Sharon and their two daughters Angelina and Maggie.

In 2009 Joe had the honor and privilege to make several performances in Seoul, South Korea for our men and women stationed on US military bases overseas with his full Illusion show. Currently Joe has an ongoing contract with Marriott Vacation Club and entertains their guests from all over the world.

What does your Show specialize in? Illusion, magic, and comedy!

What is the current reason one MUST see your show? Joe's unique and entertaining style has created a thrilling, interactive experience for his audiences. It's a MUST see!

Explain your process: For the creative process required for magic, Joe admits he's not always the most creative but finds inspiration from various sources, including other entertainers and his own experiences. He emphasizes the importance of constantly learning and adapting, whether through attending conventions, seminars, or collaborating with fellow magicians.

Where did you learn your craft? Transitioning to the learning process, Joe emphasizes the importance of practice and continuous learning in mastering magic tricks. He draws parallels between the creative process in comedy and magic, which has influenced his approach to crafting and refining magic routines. Regarding education in magic, Joe harnessed his craft from traditional mentorship and magic shops to the vast resources available online. One of his influences was Shin Lim, who honed their skills primarily through internet tutorials, showcasing the diverse paths to mastering magic in the modern era.

What is your coolest / strangest trick? One of his most unusual tricks involves an audience member picking a phone number out of a phone book, with Holiday predicting exactly what number that might be. And although it's a more tradition feat, the cut-in-half, floating-in-air, appearing-and-disappearing type of magic is his favorite.

Please share any important information locals and visitors should know about: Joe is also available for private events! Reach out to him through the contact information at the bottom. You can also catch Joe's sixty-minute live show filled with laughs and magic at Wyndham's Skyline Tower, every weekend through December 31st (additional dates will be added in 2025), Saturdays and Sundays, at 3 pm and 7 pm. Come prepared to engage, laugh, and be amazed!

BILL FROWINE & Yogi

Bill Frowine first came to The Seeing Eye as a teenager. He recently returned be matched with his fifth Seeing Eye dog, a yellow Labrador retriever named Yogi.

In the photo, Bill is laughing as Yogi, in harness, turns and licks his cheek!

Bill lives in Atlanta, Georgia, and recently returned from a 10-day vacation in Mexico with his family and, of course, Yogi. Bill works as a project manager in IT.

“Yogi is great in harness. He’s very much all business,” Bill said. “We have this one block in Atlanta that has telephone poles right down the middle of the sidewalk. And they aren’t even in a straight line. It’s like they designed it as an obstacle course. There’s a lot of weaving. It would be a challenge for any guide dog. Yogi just breezes down it.”

WALK &

with The Seeing Eye

Friday, October 25th from 9 am - 10:30 am

Learn how Seeing Eye dogs are trained on the streets of Morristown. Each program begins with a brief presentation and tour of our downtown training location located at 14 Maple Avenue. Participants will then take a walk through the streets of Morristown and learn how Seeing Eye dogs guide their handlers safely. The walking distance is about 1 mile and is appropriate for ages 12+.

Location: 14 MAPLE AVENUE, MORRISTOWN, NJ (Signs alongside the building will be pointing to the entrance of the training center.)

Time: 9:00 am - 10:30 am

PPAWS (People & Puppies at Work for Sight) is a dedicated group of local families from Atlantic and Cape May Counties, which raise these amazing puppies for The Seeing Eye. Until a Seeing Eye dog is ready for training, he or she lives with a puppy raising or foster family that gives the dog love, gentle guidance, and consistent care. These volunteers nurture their puppy to accomplish its special destiny.

If you are interested in raising a puppy for The Seeing Eye, call Peter at (609)804-8774 or visit seeingeye.org/raise for info.

The Arc of Atlantic County Golf Classic presented by I. Rice & Company, Inc. Raises $135,000 for Programs Supporting Individuals with Disabilities

The Arc of Atlantic County held its annual signature fundraising event, The Arc of Atlantic County Golf Classic presented by I. Rice & Company, Inc., on Thursday, October 10, 2024, at the prestigious Galloway National Golf Club in Galloway, NJ. The event welcomed over 120 golfers, all gathering to support crucial services for individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD) in Southern New Jersey. The Arc of Atlantic County has hosted golf fundraising events for 15 consecutive years, with I. Rice & Company as the presenting sponsor.

Participants enjoyed a picture-perfect autumn day on the award-winning course, making the event not just a day of fun and friendly competition, but a powerful expression of solidarity and philanthropy.

Funds raised from the event will directly support The Arc's essential programs, including Intensive Case Management, Recreation, Employment, and Family Services Programs. These programs ensure that individuals with IDD have the resources, opportunities, and support needed to live full, independent, and inclusive lives.

"The Arc of Atlantic County Golf Classic returned to Galloway National Golf Club for the fifth consecutive year," said Scott Hennis, Chief Executive Officer of The Arc of Atlantic County. "Our guests thoroughly enjoyed playing this exceptional course; even more important, our guests also understand that their participation in this event makes a real difference in the lives of individuals living with IDD in our community."

Since its inception in 2008, The Arc of Atlantic County Golf Classic has become a cornerstone of the organization's fundraising efforts. Through the unwavering support of participants and sponsors, this event has raised over $1.5 million, directly benefiting individuals and families throughout Atlantic County who rely on services of The Arc. "We are incredibly fortunate to have the enduring support of our presenting sponsor, I. Rice & Company," Hennis added. "Their commitment to our mission is truly inspiring. ### Frankenstein Friday – October 25, 2024

Frankenstein Friday, which is on the last Friday in October, falling on October 25 this year, was created to celebrate Mary Shelley and her famous novel "Frankenstein" (also named "The Modern Prometheus"). Mary Shelley's creation spawned an entire genre, countless movie adaptations, and widespread recognition, and from the spooky October month comes another fun celebration. Frankenstein Friday aims to immortalize and honor this monster of a book right around the time the U.S. celebrates another scary holiday.

History of Frankenstein Friday

Human history has never been without monsters. Myths, folktales, epic stories have all had a monster or two, even tales from ancient civilizations like the Aztecs or Incas. While appearances and characteristics might differ, these monsters have appeared across cultures. Of these, Frankenstein's monster is one of the best-known of all time.

In 1816, Mary Shelley, wife of poet Percy Bysshe Shelley, traveled to Geneva, Switzerland, to visit their friend, poet Lord Byron, at Villa Diodati. The group also consisted of physician John Polidori. A volcano erupted in Indonesia causing severe rain and climate abnormalities, meaning the group was stuck inside the house where they read ghost stories to pass the time. Lord Byron subsequently proposed a competition to see who could come up with the best ghost story. Mary Shelley won this contest with "Frankenstein"; Lord Byron and Percy Bysshe Shelley did not finish their stories, but Polidori wrote the inspiration for Bram Stoker's "Dracula", "The Vampire". "Frankenstein" was anonymously published two years after when Mary was only 20 years old. The dedication in the very first edition was to William Godwin, Mary Shelley's father. Percy Shelley wrote the preface, which is why many people assumed he wrote the book. Shelley republished it under her own name in 1823, with a third edition coming eight years later that explained how the story came to be. This final version is what most readers are familiar with today. The story spawned editions upon editions of prints in every language, and countless movie adaptations, over almost two centuries.

While Shelley always maintained she came up with the name of 'Frankenstein' (meaning 'Stone of the Franks') herself, critics believe she was influenced by a castle with the same name. The castle's previous inhabitant was one Konrad Dippel, an unbalanced alchemist obsessed with creating an elixir that would help people live for over a hundred years. It was rumored that he dug up bodies and experimented on them, just like Victor Frankenstein in Shelley's book.

Ryan MacCloskey from Westfield, New Jersey, founded Frankenstein Friday in 1997 to celebrate the characters, the book, and the author. He chose Friday for the celebrations because of the fun alliteration it makes with Frankenstein. Plus, he says, it is easier to be festive on a Friday than any other day.

How To Celebrate Frankenstein Friday

- Read the book that spawned it all - Read the original version of "Frankenstein" by Mary Shelley, then read the newer editions. If movies are more your style, watch one of the various movie adaptations starting as far back as 1931.
- Get to know Mary Shelley - Check out her biography and read her other works like "The Last Man" and "Falkner". You can take the cinematic route again by watching the 2018 film "Mary Shelley".
- Host a Frankenstein party - Dress up like the characters from the book, play trivia games, or even conduct little science experiments. Make (or order) Frankenstein-themed food, like cakes in the shape of the lead characters, 'dead' chicken fingers, and so on. Since it is close to Halloween, you can merge the two parties and have a spooky, Frankenstein monster-themed night.

5 Fun Facts About Frankenstein

1. The monster has no name - People often refer to the creature in the book or movie as 'Frankenstein' when, in reality, the monster is referred to as 'monster,' 'creature,' 'demon,' and 'it.'
2. It was the first sci-fi novel - Many think "Frankenstein" is the very first science fiction novel, and through it, Mary Shelley also invented the concept of a 'mad scientist' and helped establish the horror fiction genre too.
3. The monster as we know it - James Whale's 1931 movie, "Frankenstein", is responsible for the image of the creature we all have in our heads today — square-headed, heavy eyelids, and bolts in its neck.
